AMEGY BANK JOINS INTERFAITH MINISTRIES TO RAISE FUNDS FOR MEALS ON WHEELS

HOUSTON (May 1, 2020) — Due to the effects of COVID-19, many charitable organizations had to cancel or postpone their spring fundraising events. Interfaith Ministries moved forward with their annual gala, however, by providing a creative and unique solution for their gala donors – a meals on wheels dine-in experience with livestream entertainment.

Approximately 330 virtual gala attendees received a three-course dinner, provided by Amegy Bank and prepared by Chef John Guimond of Amegy Tower's Yvonne's Café. Currently, Meals on Wheels delivers 4,300 meals to seniors across the greater Houston area each day, and the need for food is continuously increasing as more individuals are impacted by COVID-19. Proceeds from the gala are vital for Interfaith Ministries' Meals on Wheels program.

"This pandemic has impacted all of us in unprecedented ways, and issues related to food accessibility for our most vulnerable neighbors are adding to the unease in our communities," said Amegy Bank CEO Steve Stephens. "The Meals on Wheels program provides critical nourishment and support to this at-risk population, and Amegy Bank enthusiastically joins Interfaith Ministries in their efforts to address the increasing demand."

The virtual dinner party yielded more than $550,000 for Interfaith Ministries, a United Way agency.
